

The Data Dilemma© activity is designed to model the practice of science in which scientists must incorporate new evidence into a working model of their research topic.

Suggested research scenarios can be found at 3dmoleculardesigns.com/Teacher-Resources/The-Data-Dilemma.htm.

Use the measurements provided to draw the six puzzle pieces as shown. Then cut the pieces out.